Teach Financial Life Skills

Pastor Sean is looking for someone or a few people perhaps that would be interested in teaching some financial literacy classes at the Salvation Army Waterston Division as a part of their Life Skills programming. He would like people from the community that are good with finances to teach the Residents about budgeting, how to read a bank statement, the difference between Money Mart and a bank, credit cards, interest etc. If you are interested or need more information, please contact Pastor Sean at 306-569-6088 Ex 237 or Sean\_Brewster@can.salvationarmy.org.

Basic Christianity

As we have some people who are readying for the waters of baptism we want to review the basics of the Christian faith. We are going to explore one of the oldest creeds of the church, the Apostles' Creed. This class would be good for seekers, new Christians or Christians confirming the next step of baptism. This class will run for 12 weeks on Sunday mornings from 9 - 10 am beginning May 28 and ending August 20th (with a few Sundays away). Please let Pastor David know if you would like to attend.
