

The Complete Book of Discipleship

Questions for Chapter 1

1. Is Hull right when he says, “Most of us want to reap the harvest of a discipline while living a life of relative sloth. We want all the benefits of humility and growth without being humble or working to grow” (25)?

2. “A commitment to be and make disciples must be the central act of every disciple and every church” (26). What do you think of this claim?

3. Why is there a risk, and what is the risk, of discipleship becoming a focus on church growth? (27)

4. Why is discipleship essential to faith? (29)

5. What do we need to learn obedience? (30)

6. How can we navigate discipleship not being a program, but a program for discipleship still being a benefit? (41)

7. What kind of person can the gospel create? (47)
