

The Complete Book of Discipleship

Questions for Chapter 6

1. How does the goal of unity change the way we normally think about discipleship in our individualistic culture?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

2. What are your thoughts on the two models of discipleship that Hull shares?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

3. How does Hull's four sequences and segments compare to our denominations stages found here or Mulholland's classical stages attached?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

4. How important is Peterson's warning that the work of reforming the church is slow work and should not lead to bullying or manipulation?

---

---

---

---

---

5. When Hull says Jesus didn't brood over those who refused his invitation to discipleship does that mean that in our own ministry we cut people off when they don't want to move forward?

---

---

---

---

---

6. Our own Jared Siebert has remarked that we have reversed Jesus's saying to, "the harvest is few and the workers of many." How does that mindset change the way we respond and work?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

7. Does Hull miss the value of failure in the process of discipleship for a preferred sense of victory?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---