The Book of Kings

July 1, 2018 | I Kings 11:1-13 | iForget | David Schuchardt

Power corrupts and absolute power corrupts absolutely. As kings, we can get distracted by our own success, forgetting who the real King is.

July 8, 2018 | I Kings 12:25-33 | iFear | David Schuchardt

Fear is a terrible master; it will make us miss our way every time. Kings fear losing it all which can cause them to compromise on what's right to keep it.

July 15, 2018 | I Kings 19:1-18 | iQuit | David Schuchardt

Sticking with God can sometimes feel very lonely. There are times when everything seems dark and we're all alone. The truth is God has a plan and it's good.

July 22, 2018 | II Kings 5:1-14 | iExpect | David Schuchardt

Kings are inherently dignified which becomes a problem when God directs our actions. God seems to have a different way of doing things which makes it hard to jump in.

July 29, 2018 | II Kings 6:24-7:20 | iReceive | Lloyd Pierce

When our kingdoms come under siege it is a terrible thing. There are some foes we cannot overcome. Fortunately, there is one who has overcome for us and set us free.

August 5, 2018 | II Kings 20:12-20 | iBrag | Rob Hartman

Sometimes when we don't know ourselves well, we can be blind to things that will commonly trip us up and cause us to repeat the same mistakes over and over. Lets explore how to lift the blinders and start seeing ourselves for who we really are.
