Jonah 1:1–16 | “You Can Run But You Can’t Hide”

God is not always a comforting presence in our lives. Scripture is very clear that his ways are not our ways. The result of all this is that we will not always receive his call as welcome. That leaves us with a choice of outright refusal or to RUN! However, God doesn’t call us idly, so he gracefully applies pressure to take us in new directions.

Jonah 1:17–2:10 | “Unusual Return”

Sometimes God’s plans and our human wills do not have a “point a to point b” format. God may need to get our attention in unusual ways. But, even if it smells like fish, God’s grace is at work bringing us to where we need to be.

Jonah 3:1–10 | “The Rocky Road of Repentance”

Fact and fiction weave together as God’s people seek to come to him. Repentance is not done to a set formula but is crafted to individual need.

Jonah 4:1–11 | “Gaining Perspective”

Just as we can’t always predict the route, we can’t always predict the outcome. Disappointment with God is something we all will struggle with. However, God is willing to help us see the bigger picture of grace if we will bear with him.
